

Concordia University Chicago Men's Lacrosse Graduate Assistant

Please apply using the link below:

<https://cuchicago.applicantpro.com/jobs/2859848.html>

Concordia University Chicago (CUC) invites applications for the part-time position of Graduate Assistant - Men's Lacrosse. This position reports directly to the Head Men's Lacrosse Coach and is located in River Forest, IL. The Men's Lacrosse Graduate Assistant serves as an assistant coach which includes responsibilities related to on-field instruction, assisting in travel, scouting, recruiting qualified student-athletes to the program, and community involvement.

Candidates must be enrolled or planning to enroll in a Concordia University Chicago graduate program. Graduate Assistant contracts run consistent with the academic year and offer tuition remission and a weekly stipend.

Responsibilities/Duties:

- Assists the Head Coach in day-to-day practice organization and planning (both in traditional and non-traditional seasons, as defined by NCAA)
- Develops player skillsets through on-field and off-field instruction
- Assists the head coach in opponent scouting, including strategy and film
- Assists the head coach to in travel preparation
- Connects with players through meetings, individual instruction, and team instruction to maintain health and promote academic success
- Represents the department, program, and university during team travel, recruiting, and day-to-day program management
- Identifies, recruits, and helps retain quality student-athletes
- Develops and implements effective communication and recruiting strategies
- Travels to and attends recruiting events as needed
- Performs other duties as assigned by the Head Coach
- Candidates must support and be committed to the mission and identity of Concordia University Chicago, a university of the Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod (LCMS)

Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree required
- Candidate must be accepted into a graduate degree program at Concordia University Chicago
- Minimum 3.0 undergraduate GPA and have valid driver's license
- Demonstrated success in playing lacrosse at the college level and strong knowledge of NCAA rules

- Excellent communication, organizational, and time management skills
- Previous recruiting experience preferred
- Previous experience in offensive instruction preferred

Application Information:

Interested individuals should include a cover letter, resume and references with their online application.

Concordia does not discriminate in the employment of individuals on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, disability, sex or age. As an institution of The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, however, and to the extent allowed by law, Concordia University reserves the right to give preference in employment based upon religious affiliation.

Concordia University Chicago does not generally sponsor for employment visas except for positions that oversee, teach or support our international programs.

About Concordia University Chicago:

Concordia University Chicago is a liberal arts-based Christian university founded in the Lutheran tradition. Through its College of Theology, Arts & Humanities, College of Business, College of Education, and College of Health, Science & Technology, Concordia-Chicago offers more than 160 areas of study in small classes taught by professors who are passionate about teaching and student success. All undergraduate and graduate degrees are fully accredited by the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools.

Concordia University Chicago has been recognized as a College of Distinction since 2010, and is consistently ranked among the Best Regional Universities-Midwest by U.S. News & World Report. For more than a decade, combined undergraduate and graduate enrollment has exceeded 5,000 students. Concordia University Chicago is located in River Forest, 10 miles west of downtown Chicago. Learn more about our commitment to higher education, rooted in the Gospel, at CUChicago.edu.